

Knowledge organiser: Going to the seaside

Beach bag nouns bank

Dans mon sac de plage, j'ai... – In my beach bag, I have...

des lunettes de soleil - sunglasses un ballon – a ball

une casquette – a cap

des tongues – flip-flops

un maillot de bain – a swimming costume de la crème solaire – some sunscreen un frisbee – a frisbee

une serviette – a towel

“Come to the beach” persuasive sentences bank

Viens à la plage! – Come to the beach!

On peut nager – You can swim

On peut faire des châteaux de sable – You can build sandcastles

On peut jouer au ballon – You can swim

On peut jouer aux raquettes – You can play with rackets

On peut sauter dans les vagues – You can jump in the waves

Il fait chaud – It is hot

Il y a du soleil – It is sunny

N'oublie pas... – Don't forget...

Grammar

Use conjunctions such as : “et” – “and” “aussi” – also” to extend your sentences.

Grammar

The phrase “on peut” translates to “you can” in English. When using “on peut”, it must be followed by a verb in its infinitive form. For example: on peut avoir (you can have), on peut faire (you can do), on peut manger (you can eat) etc.

Phonics

“ette” (casquette, serviette, raquettes)

“qu” (casquette, raquettes)

“er” (nager, jouer, sauter)

Final silent consonant: on peut, dans, tongues, maillot, viens, châteaux, raquettes, vagues, chaud

Fact Bank

France has a special seaside called “Dune du Pilat”, which is the tallest sand dune in Europe! It's so big that you can climb it and see amazing views of the ocean and the forests. Kids love running and sliding down the sandy slopes!